Dear Friends Of The Theater,

Last season was a huge success because of your support. We thank you for your enthusiastic response, patronage and vision in welcoming many new talents to our stage. Your comments, phone calls and emails are always appreciated. We also encourage you to follow us on Facebook. It's a wonderful tool to get the latest news and to provide feedback on shows.

You spoke and we listened! For the 2014-2015 Season we are bringing back some of your favorite shows. You'll notice At Your Request above these show titles. They are returning specifically because you requested them. We know you will enjoy seeing them again and hope you tell your friends and neighbors how much you enjoyed their past performances.

If you like to laugh, look for the shows with Laugh Out Loud in the title for great comedic performances. Many of the comics you will read about in this brochure are not household names but they are simply hilarious.

Finally, look for this symbol next to shows making their debut performance. As you did last season, we ask you to take a chance on shows that are new to our stage as well as purchasing tickets for your favorites and enjoy some of the best talent our theaters have ever presented.

While it's cold and snowy up north, it's going to be a hot, hot, hot Season in Florida on the Century Village stage. We look forward to seeing you as the curtain rises on the 2014-2015 Season!

A Tribute To Neil Diamond - The Ultimate Faux Diamond

Saturday, November 15

Just as a cubic zirconia’s likeness to a diamond is extraordinary, so is Neil Zirconia’s uncanny likeness to the legendary Neil Diamond. Zirconia expertly captures the essence and the passion of Diamond, with all of the movements, expression, style and music that make the iconic Diamond one of the greatest entertainers of our time.

Studio 54

Saturday, November 22

Slip on your platform shoes and boogie to the beat of the best songs from the disco era. Studio 54 is a full band made up of musicians who toured with and alongside some of the greatest artists of the ’70s. They play all the mega-hits from stars like Donna Summer, Earth, Wind & Fire, Kool & The Gang, the Bee Gees, Michael Jackson and much more.

A Night At The Opera

Saturday, November 29

Leave your old ideas of opera at the door. This fabulous production has no horns or braids... just gorgeous singers with amazing voices in excerpts from Carmen, La Bohème, La Traviata, Turandot, Madame Butterfly, Gianni Schicchi and more. Indulge yourself in this evening of love, loss and everything in between.
The National Acrobats Of The Peoples Republic Of China
Performing Cirque Peking
Wednesday, December 3
One of the most acclaimed acrobatic troupes in the world returns in a brand new production as part of its 2014 North American tour. Over several generations, the company has developed many unique acts such as “Kicking Bowls To Heads On High Unicycles,” “Diving Through Moving Hoops” and much more. Audiences in more than 500 cities in 70 countries enjoy these incredible acts of flexibility and entertainment.

NYSE Wise Guys
Saturday, December 6
The Summer 2013 Sleeper makes its Season debut! If you missed them before, here’s your chance to see this delightful three-man vocal group perform favorite standards and Rat Pack tunes with a twist. Smooth three-part harmonies combined with solos and duets make this a pleasing treat for your ears.

At Your Request
The Bronx Wanderers
With A Touch Of The Holidays
Saturday, December 13
This Century Village favorite adds a sprinkling of holiday cheer as they present songs from their new album, Merry Bronxmas, along with great hits from the ‘50s, ‘60s and ‘70s. Buckle your seat belts because this high-octane rock ‘n’ roll experience will take you on the ride of your life!
Atlantic City Boys
Saturday, December 20
The Atlantic City Boys are a quartet of dynamic lead singers who have wowed audiences in the top venues of Las Vegas, Walt Disney World, and of course, Atlantic City. In this production they lend world-class vocals to the rock ‘n’ roll harmonies of the ‘60s — singing the best of The Drifters, The Beach Boys and Frankie Valli And The Four Seasons.

Copeland Davis
Jazz To Classics
Saturday, December 27
His national television debut on The Tonight Show earned this remarkable pianist a standing ovation. Copeland Davis’ prodigious talents are now renowned and shine through in his ability to fuse blues, jazz and pop into one piece. The man described by The Boston Globe as “one of the best symphonic jazz musicians in the business” brings to the stage his own orchestra of musicians in a performance called by many a “magical musical experience.”

CANNOLI, LATKES & GUILT!...
the therapy continues
Wednesday, December 31
In case you’ve missed one of Steve Solomon’s award-winning My Mother’s Italian, My Father’s Jewish... comedies, he’s back with a hilarious show featuring the very best comedy bits from his earlier three shows—plus loads of new hilarity. CANNOLI, LATKES & GUILT...the therapy continues was a huge hit at the Coral Springs Center For The Arts where Solomon performed two weeks of sold out performances last season.
Stormy Weather
The Music Of Lena Horne

Starring Mary Wilson
Saturday, January 3

Mary Wilson is best known as a founding member of the world’s most famous female trio, The Supremes. This American icon combines story, song and rare images and film footage of another icon, Lena Horne, in a unique performance that has been described by columnist Liz Smith as a “living, breathing biography.” Thrilling arrangements include Stormy Weather, Honeysuckle Rose, Yesterday When I Was Young and others made popular by Horne. Biographer James Gavin narrates the unforgettable production.

Laugh Out Loud
Starring Joe Starr And Jeff Norris

Wednesday, January 7

Joe Starr’s comedic style is likened to that of Lou Costello, Jack Benny and Jackie Gleason. Starr proudly considers this the greatest of compliments.

Joining him in this evening of comedy is Jeff Norris, a man described as “an energetic whirlwind of stand-up comedy and great impressions.” Both men headline in comedy clubs, casinos and theaters across America.
Marilyn McCoo And Billy Davis, Jr.

Saturday, January 10

As lead vocalists for The 5th Dimension, these two enjoyed sweet success with such timeless classics as Up, Up And Away, Wedding Bell Blues, One Less Bell To Answer and more. They continued that success venturing out as a duo, immediately establishing themselves with the number one single You Don’t Have To Be A Star (To Be In My Show). Through the years the couple, who just celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary, has amassed seven Grammy Awards, 15 gold and three platinum albums. Century Village favorite, comedian Stewie Stone, opens the show!

Blue Suede Shoes

The Premier Elvis Bash

Tuesday, January 13

Many performers try to imitate “The King” but beyond the campy razzle dazzle comes a show that celebrates the genius of the man and his music. Experience the true royalty of the genre—the elite two by which all other Elvis performers are measured—Scot Bruce as young Elvis and Mike Albert as Las Vegas Elvis. Once again, they create the most authentic Elvis experience this side of heaven.

Sincerely!

Thursday, January 15

Contemporary ballet set to the great music of the ’50s, ’60s and ’70s, Sincerely! celebrates, loves and teases its way through dance moves that range from the loose-limbed youth in Hound Dog, to the sexy Latin in Mambo Italiano, to the lost lovers in Smoke Gets in Your Eyes. Memorable melodies, elegant athleticism and beautiful dance create an upbeat and entertaining experience for dancers and the audience alike.
Vocal Trash Saturday, January 17
Described as “Glee meets Stomp,” Vocal Trash asks you to recycle your imagination as their urban-themed production energizes audiences with a thrilling and heartwarming experience. World-class singing, industrial-style drumming, light-hearted comedy and award-winning break-dancing are combined in a Broadway-style show. Led by child star, Kelsey Rae (Broadway’s Annie), this green-minded ensemble presents songs ranging from jazz to patriotic medleys to Motown, swing, pop and more!

How To Succeed On Broadway Wednesday, January 21
When a group of star-struck performers arrive in the Big Apple looking for a big break armed with their newfound book How To Succeed On Broadway, how could they possibly fail? Find out in this fabulous new theatrical production celebrating the magic of the Great White Way through dazzling production numbers and scenes from acclaimed shows like The Producers, Anything Goes, Mary Poppins, Annie and more.

Capitol Steps Saturday, January 24
With material from their latest album, How To Succeed In Congress Without Really Lying, the Capitol Steps’ new production celebrates post-filibuster Democrats and Tea Party Republicans. The cast is hilarious as they make “appearances” as Edward Snowden, Vladimir Putin, Marco Rubio, Harry Reid, Mitch McConnell, Pope Francis and of course Chris Christie. With musical political satire poking fun at all sides of the issues, Capitol Steps never fails to earn bipartisan support.
Spencers - Theatre Of Illusion
Sunday, January 25
Kevin and Cindy Spencer combine spectacle, drama and danger with cutting edge illusions. Recognized throughout the world as “the best of the best,” the Spencers were named International Magicians of the Year, an honor they share with the likes of Copperfield and Penn & Teller. In addition to their astonishing evening performance, Kevin Spencer, creator of the Healing of Magic program designed for healthcare professionals in the field of rehabilitation will offer a free Healing Through Magic outreach session at 10:00 am on the day of the performance in the theater.

Season Sleeper!
Savannah Jack
Thursday, January 29
From playing honky-tonks in Nashville, to opening for John Fogerty, Vince Gill and the legendary Kenny Rogers, this amazing band sharpened their skills as outstanding live entertainers captivating audiences from the very first note. With extraordinary three-part vocal harmonies, superior musicianship and a fresh new sound, this band sounds spectacular whether they’re performing country, Motown, pop, jazz or standards.

Cavendish Classics

Bob Eubanks
The Not So Newlywed Game
Tuesday, February 3

Multi-Emmy Award winner Bob Eubanks brings one of television’s most iconic shows to Century Village. The multi-media performance includes Eubanks narrating humorous clips from the original show and then hosting a half-hour live version using eight married couples from the audience in two different games. It’s called the Not So Newlywed Game, because it doesn’t matter how long you have been married. The questions are funny, the couples are funny. It’s an evening of games, small prizes and laughter that you will never forget.

The Doo Wop Project
Thursday, February 5

The Doo Wop Project traces the evolution of doo wop from the classic sound of five guys singing tight harmonies on a street corner to the biggest hits on the radio today. The incredible show is a journey from the foundational tunes of groups like The Crests and Flamingos through the sounds of Smokey Robinson, The Temptations and all the way to Michael Jackson. At time of press, specific performers are not verified but all will be current and former stars of Broadway’s smash hits Jersey Boys, Beautiful and/or Motown: The Musical.

Laugh Out Loud
Starring Sarge
Saturday, March 28

Sarge is a one-of-a-kind comedian and musical savant. He delivers one of the most entertaining and hilarious performances ever to hit the stage. His rapid-fire, off-the-cuff style of observational comedy takes aim at anyone and everyone! Sarge also does spot-on singing impressions of well-known performers such as Stevie Wonder, Lionel Richie and Harry Connick, Jr. and his skills at the piano are equally prodigious. Needless to say, no two of his shows are ever alike.
